

Pak Air chief: Operation Zarb-e-Azb has broken the back of terrorists

Written by JPNN

Friday, 27 March 2015 15:05 - Last Updated Friday, 27 March 2015 15:12

Jehlum Post News Network/Risalpur/ March 26, 2015/ Air Chief Marshal Sohail Aman said on Thursday that close synergy among the armed forces in Operation Zarb-e-Azb has broken the back of the terrorists. Addressing a passing out parade at Pakistan Air Force (PAF) Academy Risalpur, the air chief said PAF in coordination with Pakistan Army and Navy has thwarted the nefarious designs of terrorists. "We are determined to continue joint efforts till revival of complete peace in the country, " Aman said. The air chief said that PAF has been equipped with state of the art equipment to defend the aerial frontiers of the country. "PAF is regarded as a potent and respected force in the world because of its professionalism and valour."The air chief marshal also said that Pakistan believes in the policy of peaceful coexistence. "Despite many internal and external challenges, nobody can dare cast an evil eye on the motherland as we are capable to defend our territory." Tribune