

*JPNN/New Delhi /Apr 25, 2015/For the first time, Prime Minister Narendra Modi today travelled by Metro from Dhaula Kuan to Dwarka where he was going for a function. He took the Metro to avoid inconvenience to the public on the route because of the security arrangements, sources said. The Prime Minister was to attend a function of the National Intelligence Academy. When the Prime Minister travels, the road is closed for sometime for his movement. The Prime Minister said he really enjoyed the Metro ride. Really enjoyed the ride. Thanks Delhi Metro.
