

Jehlum Post News|Jammu| Apr 17, 2014| With great enthusiasm among the voters polling for 5-Udhampur Parliamentary Constituency took off at 7 AM on Thursday, with long queues being reported outside polling stations across various Assembly Segments. As many as 13 candidates are in fray for 5-Udhampur Parliamentary Constituency. During the first hour of polling itself as many as 118 votes were reportedly cast at 67/14 Gagwal-A Polling Station while as 149 votes were cast at 67/15 Gagwal-B Polling Station in Hiranagar Assembly Segment. At the Polling Station 62/2 Government Higher Secondary Rang, 100 year old Jaffo Ram was among the early voters who cast his vote in Ramnagar Assembly Segment.