

Chidambaram: Switzerland not sharing info on bank accounts of Indians

Written by JPNN

JPNN|New Delhi|Upping the ante against Switzerland for not sharing information on Indians stashing money in its banks, India's Finance Minister P Chidambaram Thursday threatened to drag the European nation to multilateral foras like G20 for continuing to block its requests. Chidambaram, in a terse two-page letter to his Swiss counterpart Eveline Widmer Schlumpf, reminded him of the April 2009 declaration adopted by G20 leaders stating the "era of bank secrecy is over.
